

ALICE NUTESON

Choral Musician

I am a musician with over 30 years of experience directing choirs and teaching music classes including piano and music production. I am a skilled choral performer and clinician who enjoys working with school, community, and professional ensembles.

Contact

847-323-3264

alicenuteson@gmail.com

48 Westover Road
Highwood, IL 60040

Education

Bachelor of Music Education

Northwestern University - 1988

Master of Music Education

DePaul University - 1995

Skills

- Outstanding sight reader
- Perfect pitch
- Piano and accompanying (intermediate)
- Choral Conducting
- Strong ensemble skills
- Violin (intermediate)
- Experience in a variety of vocal styles and genres

Experience

Milwaukee Symphony Chorus

Milwaukee, WI

2018 - present

- Rostered for both large and smaller, select ensemble performances
- Alto 1 section member

St. John Cantius Church

Village Church of Northbrook

Winnetka Congregational Church

Chicago, IL

2022 - present

- Paid alto chorus member and song leader at these churches - substitute and supplementary roster
- Sample repertoire: Lord Nelson Mass (Haydn); Requiem (Mozart); Missa O Magnum Mysterium (Palestrina)

DePaul University

Chicago, IL

2024 - present

- Adjunct Professor in the School of Music
- Courses taught in secondary choral methods and conducting for the music educator
- Supervision of student teachers

The Caroling Party / American Caroling Co.

Chicago, IL

2023 - present

- Professional caroling ensembles
- Performances throughout Chicagoland requiring vocal skill and strong stage presence

Adlai E. Stevenson High School

Lincolnshire, IL

1990 - 2023

- Directed and oversaw all aspects of the choral program at a large, award-winning high school
- Multiple invitations to perform at the Illinois Music Educators Conference (2022, 2009)
- Kennedy Center recognized School of Distinction in the Arts (2010)